A $5,000 Wedding? It's possible, on A Grand Wedding.com

SEATTLE, WA – Northwest brides may feel this is the worst time to be planning a wedding, but when they tap A Grand Wedding, (www.agrandwedding.com)—they very well could have a storybook wedding for just $5,000.

“You absolutely can have a wonderful wedding for five thousand dollars,” says co-founder & Original Bride, Georgie Hockett. “With a reasonable guest list and four or five wedding elements that are the most important to you, you can have a wedding that’s beautiful, fun and affordable.”

If the most important things to a bride are the location, the dress, the food and the photography, she can find wedding vendors in each of these categories—all with services and products under a thousand dollars or less—on A Grand Wedding.com. “And these are high-end vendors with a quality product,” emphasizes Hockett. In fact, A Grand Wedding has negotiated special offers with several elite vendors that are only available through A Grand Wedding.

“Marriage is all about compromise, and your wedding will have to be too,” warns Hockett. “Trimming the guest list, getting married on an off-day are both ways to cut expenses without giving up much in the end.”

About A Grand Wedding

A Grand Wedding (www.agrandwedding.com) is the only web resource where every vendor on the site has a wedding service under a thousand dollars. A Grand Wedding also introduces BUY, BORROW or SHARE—a revolutionary (and green!) way for brides to purchase, rent or split the bill on wedding items—and AngelBride®, where wedding wishes are granted by donated, professional wedding services. The A Grand Wedding concept was created by local couple, Dave and Georgie Hockett. “We wanted a beautiful wedding with enough money left over for a beautiful life,” says Georgie. “We wanted a marriage, not just a wedding.”
