Second-Hand Wedding Items Become 'Eco-Chic'

SEATTLE, WA – Whether you're looking to save the earth or simply save money, recycling wedding items is the hot new trend in today's 'green' environment.

From 'one-time' (or 'never-worn') wedding dresses to left over wedding favors, economy-savvy and ecologically-friendly brides are selling their wedding items online. And they're turning to BUY, BORROW or SHARE—an exclusive resource found on A Grand Wedding.com—the only place where new brides can buy wedding items, rent wedding items or split the cost with other brides.

"It's not like Craig's List in the way that things are just for sale," explains co-founder & Original Bride, Georgie Hockett. "You can also rent items at typically half the cost that they sell for, or you can coordinate with another bride and share the cost on an item."

There is never a fee to post or search for wedding items on BUY, BORROW or SHARE—"It's a community of brides helping each other out," says Hockett. "We're not here to profit off of it; A Grand Wedding is simply putting brides in touch with each other so they can have everything that they want, and deserve, for their wedding... at essentially half the cost of retail."

About A Grand Wedding

A Grand Wedding (www.agrandwedding.com) is the only web resource where every vendor on the site has a wedding service under a thousand dollars. A Grand Wedding also introduces BUY, BORROW or SHARE—a revolutionary (and green!) way for brides to purchase, rent or split the bill on wedding items—and AngelBride®, where wedding wishes are granted by donated, professional wedding services. The A Grand Wedding concept was created by local couple, Dave and Georgie Hockett. "We wanted a beautiful wedding with enough money left over for a beautiful life," says Georgie. "We wanted a marriage, not just a wedding."
