Wedding Wishes Granted by A Grand Wedding's AngelBride®

SEATTLE, WA – A local dot com is seeking brides who want free wedding services. A Grand Wedding (www.agrandwedding.com) — where all vendors who advertise on the site have wedding service under a thousand dollars — is seeking nominations for their non-profit, “good karma” venture, AngelBride®.

Ideal nominees might have an unusual story of how they met, volunteer in their community, are in the middle of a personal struggle or are just good people who need help having the wedding of their dreams.

The editors at A Grand Wedding will narrow down nominated couples to the top five. Then, the Grand community will vote for their favorite couple. “The winning couple can request what wedding service they’d like, but we will do everything we can to get their every wedding wish granted,” says co-founder & Original Bride, Georgie Hockett.

Nominations are being received at www.agrandwedding.com/angelbride. Every month a winning couple will have their wedding wish(es) granted by A Grand Wedding's AngelBride®.

About A Grand Wedding (agrandwedding.com)

A Grand Wedding (www.agrandwedding.com) is the only web resource where every vendor on the site has a wedding service under a thousand dollars. A Grand Wedding also introduces BUY, BORROW or SHARE — a revolutionary way for brides to purchase, rent or split the bill on wedding items — and AngelBride®, where wedding wishes are granted by donated, professional wedding services. The Grand Wedding concept was created by local couple, Dave and Georgie Hockett. “We wanted a beautiful wedding with enough money left over for a beautiful life,” says Georgie. “We wanted a marriage, not just a wedding.”
