Be a part of Seattle's Largest Bachelorette Party: A Grand Wedding.com goes 'Beyond the Boa'

SEATTLE, WA—When you think 'Bachelorette Party,' you think feather boas, leopard print everything and Girls Gone Wild. But one local '.com' is ushering in the new era of bachelorette parties; introducing celebrations you'll remember for the rest of your life, rather than those you wish you could forget the next morning.

A Grand Wedding.com (www.agrandwedding.com)—the only web site featuring wedding vendors priced at $1,000 or less—is sponsoring Beyond the Boa: Seattle's Largest Bachelorette Party, Thursday, June 4th, 6-9pm at the beautiful Alexis Hotel in downtown Seattle.

"No one likes the typical bachelorette party," says A Grand Wedding.com co-founder, Georgie Hockett. "We just do it because it's what we think we should be doing. But why not create meaningful experiences with your friends? An in-home wine tasting, a private boutique tour, a high-end photo shoot with your girls. All of these things are a lot more fun than going to a male strip club and drinking a $12.00 Coke."

Beyond the Boa will feature the very best in bachelorette party alternatives such as touring exclusive jewelry collections, spa professionals who come to your home, tea parties at a private club and more. Also at the event: select vendors with celebrity-inspired accessories, eye-catching centerpiece alternatives for your wedding day, and the only 'bachelorette party cake' baker in Seattle.

Guests at Seattle's Largest Bachelorette Party will enjoy signature A Grand Wedding.com cocktails, appetizers, two DJs and over $200 in spa and unique services right when they walk in the door.

"But we're not only redefining the bachelorette party," says Hockett, "We're also raising money for Brides Against Breast Cancer." Bachelorette Party guests will bid on high-end items in a silent auction—such as designer hand bags—while the raffle will include specialty items, services and beauty products. Proceeds will benefit the non-profit.

After guests have toured the most gorgeous suites at the Alexis Hotel, discovered party alternatives and picked up last-minute wedding items and gifts, they'll head home with a Swag Bag stuffed with music by local artists, sweet treats, magazines, resource guides, discounts to Seattle's hottest boutiques, a just-published book and more. "This event is not just for brides," says Hockett. "It's for every girl."

Tickets are just $20 online (at the A Grand Wedding.com TicketWindow) and $25 at the door. Valet parking will be available at the Alexis for a discounted rate of just $5.00.
